

2000-Level English Literature Syllabus Supplement

A. Policy Statements

This is a Core IMPACTS course that is part of the Humanities area.

Core IMPACTS refers to the core curriculum, which provides students with essential knowledge in foundational academic areas. This course will help master course content and support students' broad academic and career goals.

This course should direct students toward a broad Orienting Question:

- How do I interpret the human experience through creative, linguistic, and philosophical works?

Completion of this course should enable students to meet the following Learning Outcome:

- Students will effectively analyze and interpret the meaning, cultural significance, and ethical implications of literary/philosophical texts or of works in the visual/performing arts.

Course content, activities, and exercises in this course should help students develop the following Career-Ready Competencies:

- Ethical Reasoning
- Information Literacy
- Intercultural Competence

Required Prerequisite: A grade of C or better in ENGL 1102 is required before a student may take any ENGL 2000-level survey of literature.

For MGA Institutional Policies Please See Following Link: <https://www.mga.edu/center-excellence-teaching-learning/syllabi-policies.php>

Withdrawal Policies. Students are encouraged to read the withdrawal policy found at <https://www.mga.edu/registrar/registration/drop-add.php> before dropping/withdrawing from the class (you are limited to 5 no-penalty withdrawals). Students may withdraw from the course and earn a grade of "W" up to and including the "Last Day to Withdraw" date:

- Friday, February 7, 2025 for Short Session I
- Wednesday, March 12, 2025 for Full Session
- Friday, April 4, 2025 for Short Session II

After “The Last Day to Withdraw” date, students who withdraw will receive a grade of “WF.” A WF is calculated in the GPA as an “F.” Instructors may assign “W” grades for students with excessive absences (beyond the number of absences permitted by the instructor’s stated attendance policy). Students may withdraw from a maximum of five courses throughout their enrollment at Middle Georgia State. Beyond the five-course limit, withdrawals result in “F” grades.

The Writing Center:

The Writing Center offers free assistance with writing for any MGA student in any course. While consultants do not give content or proofread, they provide readers with useful feedback and support when drafting and revising. The Writing Center has physical locations in Macon and Cochran, as well as online video conferencing for all. You can make appointments for any of these at www.mga.edu/WritingCenter.
