

Fall Line Review Guidelines

Supplement to Student Media Bylaws and the Student Media Handbook

1. The Editor shall be selected by the faculty advisors in consultation with the Student Media Coordinator.
2. Advertisement for the position of editor shall be posted well in advance of deadlines (for at least 10 business days when the College is in session) and shall go out on the student listserv as managed by the Student Life Office.
- 3.
4. The office of the Fall Line Review is located in the Arts 232.
5. The Editor shall work with the faculty advisors to produce, in spring semester, a literary and arts magazine composed solely of student work.
6. The editorial staff shall commit itself to publishing a high quality magazine that represents the best literary and artist work of a diverse student body.
7. The selection of content is based upon the judgment of the Editor/student editors, a process that shall be free of censor