

About Dr. Kristie Roberts-Lewis

Dr. Kristie Roberts-Lewis is an accomplished Higher Education administrator with an exceptional record of leading transformational change and increasing institutional effectiveness and student success in graduate education.

With over two decades of experience in higher education leadership, Dr. Roberts-Lewis has prepared students for careers in public service at institutions including Jackson State University, Clark Atlanta University, Troy University, Point University, Southern University, and Middle Georgia State University, where she currently serves as the Executive Director of the Center for Middle Georgia Studies.

A native of Atlanta, Georgia, Dr. Roberts-Lewis holds:

- < Ph.D. in Public Policy & Administration from Jackson State University
- < Master of Divinity from Emory University-Candler School of Theology
- < Master of Public Administration from Albany State University
- < Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice from Fort Valley State University

Her additional academic achievements include:

- < Carnegie Mellon Foundation Future Minority Studies Post-Doctoral Fellowship at Syracuse University
- < Post-graduate studies at Beijing Union University, Oxford University, and a Fulbright Hays Fellowship in Ghana
- < Certifications in Business Ethics, Inclusive and Ethical Leadership, Inclusive Pedagogy, and Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion
- < Certified Manager designation