

Master of Science Adult/Gerontological Primary Care Nurse Practitioner – Executive Summary

The proposed MSN is a 46 semester credit hour program, delivered via hybrid format that will prepare advanced practice nurses for certification in Adult Health and Gerontology Nursing Nurse Practitioners. Adult Health and Gerontology Nursing Nurse Practitioners are advanced practice licensed registered nurses who provide a wide range of healthcare services across varied healthcare settings.