

Report of the Promotion, Tenure and Post-Tenure Review Committee

Line item revisions to the Faculty Handbook: (section numbers refer to the handbook draft of 4/26/2013 as posted on the www.mga.edu website)

Section	Current wording	Proposed wording	rationale
4.05.02.6	Although the portfolio may be maintained in hard copy, for the purpose of review, it shall not exceed sixty pages total; shall be submitted electronically; and shall contain the following:	Although the portfolio may be maintained in hard copy, for the purpose of review, it shall be submitted electronically, and shall contain the following:	Per Academic Affairs, the total page limit is too restrictive. Instead, faculty are str

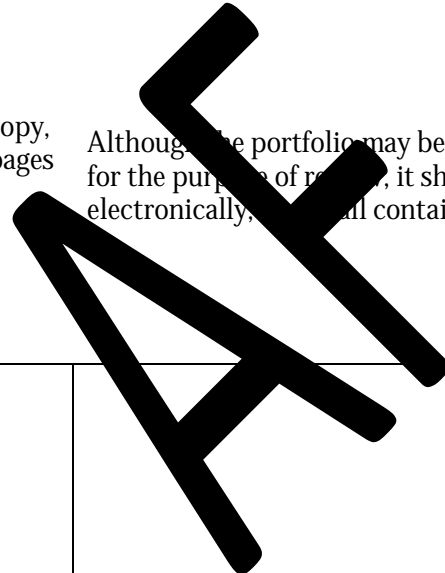

Table 1 Faculty 6/13

4.06.02

7. Individuals who are appointed initially at the rank of Associate Professor or Professor are not permitted to see tenure prior to the fifth year of appointment, unless probationary credit has been granted.

7. Individuals who are appointed initially at the rank of Associate Professor or Professor are not permitted to receive tenure prior to the fifth year of appointment, unless probationary credit has been granted.

Replace awkward

DRAFT

DRAFT

		tenure (BoR Minutes, August 2002). Not more than 20 percent (20%) of an institution's FTE corps of primarily undergraduate instruction may be lecturers and/or senior lecturers (BoR Minutes, 1992-93, p. 188). c. Candidates failing to receive tenure at the end of their fifth or sixth year are eligible to reapply during the following year, according to the tenure application process. One who is denied tenure a second time will be given a terminal contract for their final year of employment.
--	--	---	--

4.07.02

c. Candidates failing to receive tenure at the end of their chosen by the faculty member being reviewed (three total); the subcommittee shall choose a chair from

DRAFT

DRAFT