Policy. Dr. Chae pointed out the need to avoid discrepancies in the wording. A round discussion ensued with members attempting to reconcile differences in suggestions for wording the document. Finally, the group created a document which added a statement to the existing Attendance Policy, as follows: "Students who participate in official college activities at the request of college authorities will not be assessed penalties for these absences." Another clause was then added to allow for differences in attendance requirements in various schools stating that: "Some schools may have additional attendance policies, such as Federal requirements in the school of Aviation." (See attached document).
