

Expected Graduate Course Prerequisites

Effective Semester: Fall 2019

Prerequisites

Gregor's lecture

Prerequisites: This course is taken in

This is the one course is designed to synthesize

8891 110

311

Course Student Learning Outcomes: 1. Define and develop their individualized artistic vision.

2. Develop and present a musical product, either digital or in the form of a recording.

1. Define and develop their individualized artistic vision.

2. Develop and present a musical product, either digital or in the form of a recording.

MUSC 4999 SENIOR CAPSTONE

Prerequisites: This course is taken in the final semester

Corequisites: none

Course Description (Middle Georgia State University Catalog)

This course is designed for students who are majoring in music. Students will develop their artistic vision, a final musical product, and a multi-media artistic portfolio suitable for self-marketing and application for graduate school.

Student Learning Outcomes

At the completion of this course, the student will be able to

1. Define and develop their individualized artistic vision
2. Develop and present a musical product, either digital or in the form of a recital

3. Create an artistic portfolio in support of future goals

Text, Materials, and Supplies

Timmons, Jill. 2013. The Musician's Journey: Crafting Your Career Vision and Plan. New York: Oxford University Press

Reilly, James M. 2013. Shake the World: It's not about finding a job, it's about creating a life