

New Course (Non-Gen Ed) Proposal Form

College of Business Administration

Submitted on behalf of the Provost:

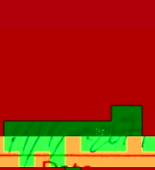

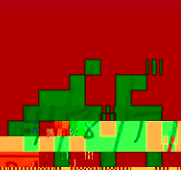

Instructions: All course proposals must be signed by a dean and a department chair.

179927

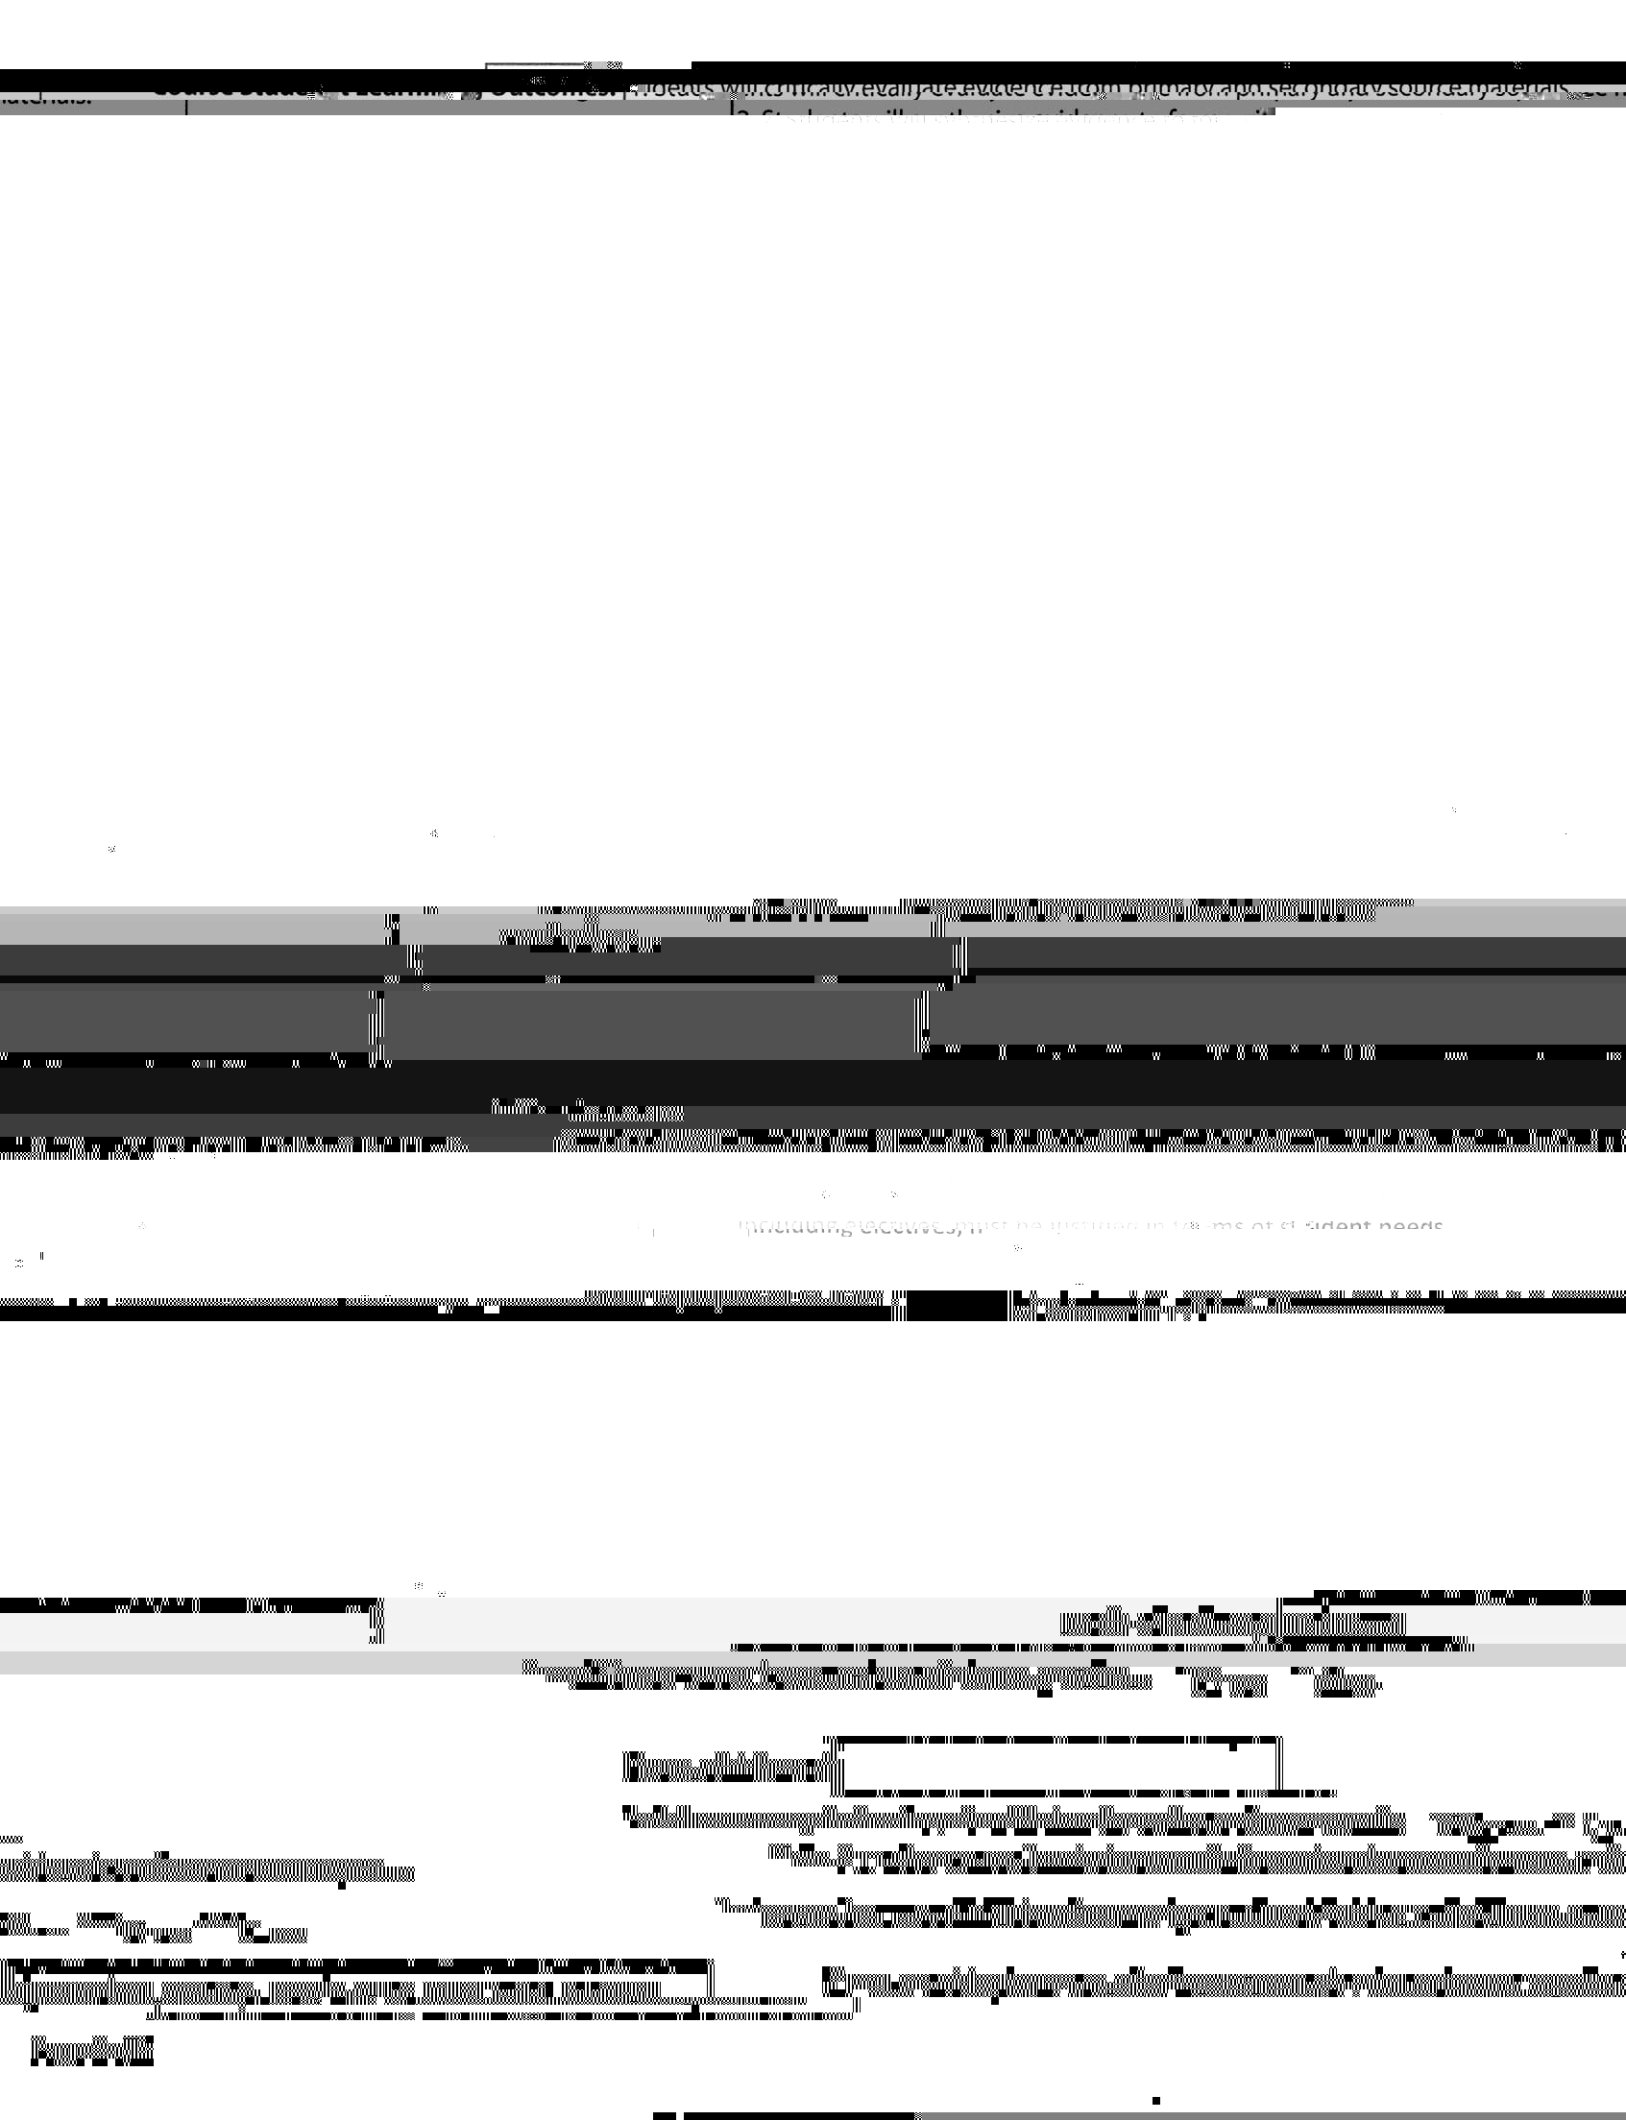

Faculty Initiating Request: Christopher N. Lawrence

Expected Semester Enrollment: 10

Effective Semester: Fall 2018

 Dean
 Assistant Provost
 Faculty Member
 Faculty Member

11/17/17

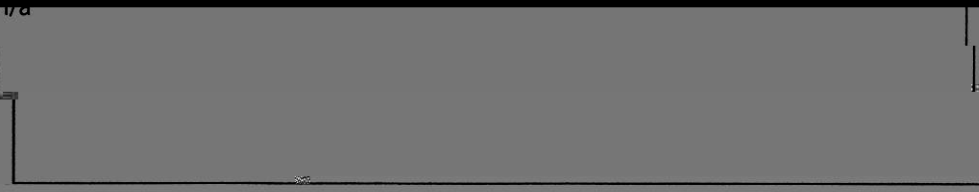

Technology

Space

Library Resources

U/C Lstinction # New n/a

Provide description of add resources.

general student to inform that includes the course the work completed and any other information regarding learning resources. Please that n

POLS 4900 Capstone Seminar in Political Science, Semester YYYY

CRN xxxxx: days/time/location

Note to the curriculum committee: as the instructor has discretion to decide the substantive content of the course (in a similar fashion to a special topics course), the sample syllabus only addresses the course's common elements related to program assessment.

Catalog Description: The capstone seminar is a reading and writing-intensive course on one or more topics in political science selected by the instructor, designed to integrate and assess students' knowledge from their

Student Learning Objectives: At the conclusion of this course, students will meet the following objectives:

1. Students will critically evaluate evidence from primary and secondary source materials.

2. Students will synthesize evidence to form written arguments.