

This course is requested to satisfy the following Core Area(s) and/or Learning Goals (if that apply):

IES)

IV | Area C (Humanities and Fine Arts) (IES 5): Students will be able to actively interpret and analyze texts of art, or music.

Area D (Natural Science, Mathematics, and Technology): Students will be able to solve problems using scientific principles and the scientific method.

US 1 - US Perspectives: Students will demonstrate an understanding of American history and government, and related political, social, economic, and institutional developments and issues.

Grade level:

Students will demonstrate proficiency in grammar and vocabulary at a course appropriate level.

This course is in compliance with the POP list of common course prefixes, numbers and designations for review of course names/numbers.

