

Explain why the new curriculum is needed. For example, does it reflect disciplinary content that augments existing degree programs? Does it address regional industry needs? How does the new curriculum address the needs of the workforce?

In the workforce, many employers are seeking applicants who have the ability to analyze the changing needs of their discipline and