She mentioned that at the next meeting, she would try to get a photograph photos.

Approval of Agenda

There was no discussion.

Estella Dennard agreed that this would be a good initiative. She also included that goals would be determined at the next meeting.

Announcements

Estella Dennard asked if there were questions or announcements.

Felicia Haywood announced that she had materials for the council to review. She passed around a document that would help to evaluate web resources. The tool was referred to as the CRAP test and Felicia Haywood explained the acronym. She also said she would look into getting the document posted on InsideMGA.

Estella Dennard asked if there were other announcements.

Ryan Greene suggested that we go back to our offices and ask our colleagues what they want staff council to look at, or try to accomplish. He also suggested that each council member attend the next meeting with at least one or two recommendations for staff council initiatives.

Estella Dennard agreed that was a good idea. She mentioned that a colleague came to her and suggested that staff council have suggestion boxes to help

Felicia Haywood read aloud the process for electing the executive board and stated that the council should move quickly, because of the delay in process.

Allen Chastain mentioned that it was difficult to hear the conversation in Cochran and asked that any voting please be postponed.

Dates

Elizabeth Douglas suggested that the next in-person meeting be held at the August 10th date.

A staff council member mentioned that August 10th was move in day for all campuses and likely would not work for the in-person meeting.

Vicky Smith mentioned that everyone would be in Macon for convocation on August 6th.

Estella Dennard said she would get a room for the 6th.

Felicia Haywood asked if this would be an additional meeting, and we still planned to keep the meeting on the 10th.

Estella Dennard confirmed that this would be an additional meeting.

Estella Dennard made a motion to adjourn.

The motion to move came from Ryan Greene and Elizabeth Douglas provided a second.

Respectfully Submitted,

Devereaux Lindsey
