DR

The President shall affirm or veto the recommendations and communicate that decision to the Senate Chair.

The Senate Chair shall report the same back to the Senate, to affected committees, and all interested parties.

If an action necessitates a change to a governing document, namely the Statues, the Bylaws or the Faculty Handbook, the Senate Chair will send notification to the Executive Committee or the Faculty Affairs Committee as is appropriate.

Per BOR Policy Manual §2.6.2, "The President may veto any act of any council, faculty, or committee of his or her own institution, but, in doing so, shall transmit to the proper office a written statement of the reason for such a veto. A copy of each veto statement shall be transmitted to the Chancellor."

Current rules require that an agenda must be sent to the Senate no less than ten (10) days in advance. Per the current MGA Senate, five (5) days' notice is sufficient. NEW: the notice period is reduced from ten (10) days to five (5) days, creating better work flow from committees to Senate.

The installation of the Chair-Elect will be delayed until the first meeting of Spring Semester, allowing a potential nominee time to understand the Chair's role before accepting the Chair's role, and the committee members time to know a potential nominee before casting a vote.
