V. Old Business

- a. Update on drug/alcohol use on MGA campuses: From Spring 2020 meeting: Chief Mitchel reported that there will be a push to provide more information to students (especially dorm students) about rules regarding alcohol and drugs on campus. The campaign will involve both campus police and Brian Harrell and Jennifer Brannon in Residence Life. Dr. Nancy Stroud said that MGA does have after offense education for students along through Michael Stewart's office and the Student Judiciary.
 - ii. Fall 2020 Meeting:
 1. Madelyn Mayo reported that she had attended a meeting between the MGA SGA and Chief Mitchell where Chief Mitchell indicated there had been a significant increase in the number of bullying, fighting and drug incidents in the Cochran dorms in Fall 2020 and that he was looking for ways to prevent escalation of police involvement. Madelyn also stated that Chief Mitchell said the number of incidents did not usually go up until the end of the semester when students may act out due to failing grades and the realization that they may not be coming back the following semester but that this semester those incidents were occurring with greater frequency prior to the end of term.
