2. Minutes Approval: Andre Nicholson moved to approve the minutes, Sharon Mozley-Standridge seconded, and the motion passed (All).
3. Unfinished Business:
 - a. Update on the Diversity Survey
Larry Israel reminded points It was agreed that it was a tough decision, with both applications being deserving. It was noted that one seemed more academic and one more community-oriented, but both strong in terms of the work accomplished pertaining to diversity. It was mentioned that Elaina Behounek fit the criteria more. A motion was made by Simone Phipps to honor Elaina Behounek with the Diversity Award, and the motion was seconded by Rebekah Hazlett Hudson. The motion passed (All). Thus, the winner of the Diversity Award will be Elaina Behounek.

Adjournment: Larry Israel moved to adjourn the meeting, and Sharon McStay seconded the motion. The motion passed (All). The meeting was adjourned at 9:11 am.
