Student Responsibilities and Expectations (as found in the MGA Student Code of Conduct)

The primary expectations of all Middle Georgia State University students are integrity and civility. Each students hould approach alto ademicende avors relationships and personal responsibilities with a strong commitment to personal integrity and interpersonal civil responsibilities apply collectively to members of recognized student organization responsibilities include:

- x Individuals will fulfill their academic esponsibilities in an honest and forthright manner.
- x Individuals will respectant foster the academic endeavoors other members of the University community.
- x Individuals will protect and support he personals afety of all members of the University community.
- x Individuals will respect thermembers of the University community.
- x Individualswill showregardfor the property of the University, its community members and visitors to

Due Processand Studeincopityen the alleged charge (s) and/or violation (s).

- x A fair and impartial hearing.
- x Know the nature of the evidence against the mand the name (s) of witness (es) schedule a hearing.
- x Presentevidenceendwitnesses in their behalf.
- x Be accompanie by an advisor of their choiceduring meeting and proceeding solution and/or resolution process, as well as during a hearing, at which the advisee is
- x Be presentat the hearing understanding that illure to attend may esult in a resolution
- x Chooseto remainsilentandrefrainfrom answeringquestionswith an understandingthe not be held against them.
- x Submitquestions